

AUSTINITES CARRY LAND FIGHT TO GOVERNOR DUNNE

The people of Austin have carried their fight to prevent the grab of school lands by railroads to Gov. Dunne. In this fight good work is being done by the women who are holding protest meetings.

The letter to Dunne, written by W. E. Golden, sec'y Austin Association, was a demand for an investigation of the disposal of valuable property in Austin, known as Township 39, to the railroad. The letter in part:

"By and with what right the trustees of Township 39 sold Section 16 land to railroads, what has been done with the money, what is the total amount of money trustees of 39 have, and where the interests go?

"By and with what right the board of education of the city of Chicago has control of this Section 16-39-13 land, and what has been done with the money derived from sale of this land?

"By and with what insidious influences the cause of the Soo Line Railroad to secure Section 16 land for railroad purposes is being promoted?

"The Soo Railroad is now trying to purchase some of this land in question in face of unanimous protest of the residents in this matter."

WAITRESSES STILL FIGHT

The union waitresses refuse to swerve from their fight even after the blow delivered them by Judge Baldwin in the injunction he granted Monday.

The pickets are again on the street and will not give up the fight until decent wages and conditions are assured the girls who work in restaurants.

Sophie Dreslin, a union picket, claims that Fred Betner, a member of the Bakers' Union, had an officer read her the injunction restraining picketing while she was on the picket line at the Knab-Powers-Efting bakery, 51st street and Prairie avenue.
